

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

9THIRTY THEATRE COMPANY ANNOUNCES
EARTH MOVEMENTS 2.0
Earth Day, April 22nd @ 11:30AM, 12:30PM, & 1:30PM
www.9TTC.org

New York, NY – April 19th, 2010, - 9Thirty Theatre Company (Jeff Burroughs, Artistic Director) announces EARTH MOVEMENTS 2.0, which will run on Earth Day, Thursday, April 22nd @ 11:30AM, 12:30PM, and 1:30PM at Battery Park near Castle Clinton.

EARTH MOVEMENTS 2.0 will present “Five Pieces to Save the Planet” in Celebration of Earth Day free to the public. No dialogue, no text, but a message coded in movement with music. One song, one story: Earth Movements. The company is committed to bringing eco-art and sustainable thinking to New York City as part of their 2009-2010 season: Earth In Translation.

EARTH MOVEMENTS 2.0, conceptualized by Associate Artistic Director Justin Eure features five pieces:

ORGAN DONOR by: Justin Eure with Danny Yoerges and Luigi Digangi

THE ROCK WHO FELL IN LOVE by: Aaron Gonzalez with Kiersten Armstrong and Aaron Gonzalez and Scenic painter by: Claire Karoff

CRY by: Nicolas Townsend with Stacy Lynn Smith and Azumi Oe of the Vangeline Theater, (www.vangeline.com)

TRUSTING THINGS BEYOND MISTAKE by: Chris Schilder with Fayth Caruso and Brynne Morris

THE JANITOR by: Isaac Klein with Mike Anderson, Renaldy Smith, Kim Ramirez, Aaron Gonzalez, and Jean Goto

9Thirty Theatre Company is one of New York City’s first arts organization dedicated to encouraging writers, artists and designers to explore today’s pressing ecological issues. For more information about 9Thirty Theatre Company, please visit www.9TTC.org.

###

Press Contact: Jeff Burroughs, 718.406.9892, jeff@9TTC.org

Photos provided by 9Thirty are below. We have enclosed a couple different options to pick and choose for what you may need.

9THIRTY

THEATRE COMPANY

